Charitable purposes and powers

6. Preamble

6.1 The ethical climate of society has a direct bearing on the well-being of individuals and the community generally. Many people suffer distress when affected by the unethical behaviour of others or when placed in circumstances in which their personal values are threatened with compromise. For some people this distress is experienced daily in the foreground of their lives. For many others, it is an unsettling element in the background to contemporary life.

The plight of those who suffer physical deprivation is easily recognised. The ethical environment is a less familiar terrain and its casualties often lie mute and unobserved, the language of complaint being lost to them.

Ethical issues in business, government and the professions can be complex, particularly in conditions of strong competition and under pressure from a variety of interested parties. Dilemmas are frequent. Regulation by law is important but cannot replace the benefits derived from building and sustaining an ethical society in which individuals and organisations act in accordance with core values and principles.

The Ethics Centre offers ongoing practical assistance to individuals, organisations and wider society in their search for ethical direction. It draws upon multidisciplinary traditions and resources and the experience of people of goodwill to help advance its work in key sectors of Australian society.

The Ethics Centre contributes to and helps to shape public discussion of the ethical dimension of life – whether for individuals, organisations or society as a whole.

The Ethics Centre will operate as an independent and not-for-profit organisation.

7. Object

The company's object is to pursue the following charitable purpose(s):

- (a) to prevent and relieve distress suffered by people who encounter demands that are contrary to settled ethical dispositions,
- (b) to prevent and relieve distress caused as a result of ethical failure,
- (c) to provide a neutral, confidential setting in which ethical questions can be explored openly and dilemmas can be resolved,
- (d) to convene and curate events (both public and private) at which the ethical dimension of life can be examined,
- (e) to commission, curate and publish content that examines ethical issues arising in the lives of individuals and society,
- (f) to develop and provide services that encourage and support the integration of ethical considerations into the strategic thinking of government, business and the professions,
- (g) to develop, present and promote programs that develop ethical leadership,
- (h) to facilitate the definition, communication and implementation of ethical frameworks within organisations,
- (i) to influence the ethical framework of society,
- (j) to create and support new initiatives that promote and sustain ethics in sections of government, business and the professions,
- (k) to develop initiatives that promote the integration of ethics into education for children, adults and within government, business and the professions,
- (l) to commission, fund or undertake research into issues of applied ethics,
- (m) to facilitate or carry out any other activities in the field of applied ethics.

8. Powers

Subject to clause 9, the company has the following powers, which may only be used to carry out its purpose(s) set out in clause 6:

- (a) the powers of an individual, and
- (b) all the powers of a company limited by guarantee under the Corporations Act.

9. Not-for-profit

9.1 The company must not distribute any income or assets directly or indirectly to its members, except as provided in clauses 9.2 and 71.

9.2 Clause 9.1 does not stop the company from doing the following things, provided they are done in good faith:

- (a) paying a member for goods or services they have provided or expenses they have properly incurred at fair and reasonable rates or rates more favourable to the company, or

- (b) making a payment to a member in carrying out the company's charitable purpose(s).

10. Amending the constitution

- 10.1 Subject to clause 10.2, the members may amend this constitution by passing a special resolution.
- 10.2 The members must not pass a special resolution that amends this constitution if passing it causes the company to no longer be a charity.
- 10.3 The directors must notify the Australian Taxation Office of any alterations made to the company's object or to this constitution.

Members

11. Membership and register of members

- 11.1 The members of the company are:
- (a) Initial members of the company, and
- (b) any other person that the directors allow to be a member, in accordance with this constitution.
- 11.2 The company must establish and maintain a register of members. The register of members must be kept by the secretary and must contain:
- (a) for each current member:
- name
 - address
 - any alternative address nominated by the member for the service of notices, and
 - date the member was entered on to the register.
- (b) for each person who stopped being a member in the last 7 years:
- name
 - address
 - any alternative address nominated by the member for the service of notices, and
 - dates the membership started and ended.
- 11.3 The company must give current members access to the register of members.
- 11.4 Information that is accessed from the register of members must only be used in a manner relevant to the interests or rights of members.

12. Who can be a member

- 12.2 In this clause, 'person' means an individual or incorporated body.

13. How to apply to become a member

- A person (as defined in clause 12.2) may apply to become a member of the company by writing to the secretary stating that they:
- (a) want to become a member
- (b) support the purpose(s) of the company, and
- (c) agree to comply with the company's constitution, including paying the guarantee under clause 4 if required.

14. Directors decide whether to approve membership

- 14.1 The directors must consider an application for membership within a reasonable time after the secretary receives the application.

- 14.2 If the directors approve an application, the secretary must as soon as possible:
- (a) enter the new member on the register of members, and
- (b) write to the applicant to tell them that their application was approved, and the date that their membership started (see clause 15).
- 14.3 If the directors reject an application, the secretary must write to the applicant as soon as possible to tell them that their application has been rejected, but does not have to give reasons.
- 14.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the directors may approve an application even if the application does not state the matters listed in clauses 13(a), 13(b) or 13(c). In that case, by applying to be a member, the applicant agrees to those three matters.

15. When a person becomes a member

Other than initial members, an applicant will become a member when they are entered on the register of members.

16. When a person stops being a member

- A person immediately stops being a member if they:

- 17.6 A mediator chosen by the directors under clause 17.5(b)(i):

- 20.3 The company must pay the members who request the general meeting any reasonable expenses they incur because the directors did not call and hold the meeting.

21. Annual general meeting

- 21.1 A general meeting, called the annual general meeting, must be held:
- (a) within 18 months after registration of the company, and
 - (b) after the first annual general meeting, at least once in every calendar year.

- 30.7 This clause does not limit any other right that a member has to propose a resolution at a general meeting.

31. Company must give notice of proposed resolution or distribute statement

- 31.1 If the company has been given a notice or request under clause 30:
- (a) in time to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members with a notice of meeting, it must do so at the company's cost, or
- (b) too late to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members with a notice of meeting, then the members who proposed the resolution or made the request must pay the expenses reasonably incurred by the company in giving members notice of the proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement. However, at a general meeting, the members may pass a resolution that the company will pay these expenses.

- 31.2 The company does not need to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members if:
- (a) it is more than 1 000 words long
- (b) the directors consider it may be defamatory
- (c) clause 31.1(b) applies, and the members who proposed the resolution or made the request have not paid the company enough money to cover the cost of sending the notice of the proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members, or

- 32.1 Subject to clause 32.3, the directors may put a resolution to the members to pass a resolution without a general meeting being held (a circular resolution).
- 32.2 The directors must notify the auditor (if any) as soon as possible that a circular resolution has or will be put to members, and set out the wording of the resolution.
- 32.3 Circular resolutions cannot be used:
- (a) for a resolution to remove an auditor, appoint a director or remove a director
- (b) for passing a special resolution, or
- (c) where the Corporations Act or this constitution requires a meeting to be held.
- 32.4 A circular resolution is passed if all the members entitled to vote on the resolution sign or agree to the circular resolution, in the manner set out in clause 32.5 or clause 32.6.
- 32.5 Members may sign:
- (a) a single document setting out the circular resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution, or
- (b) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording is the same in each copy.

Voting at general meetings

33. How many votes a member has

Each member has one vote.

34. Challenge to member's right to vote

- 34.1 A member or the chairperson may only challenge a person's right to vote at a general meeting at that meeting.
- 34.2 If a challenge is made under clause 34.1, the chairperson must decide whether or not the person may vote. The chairperson's decision is final.

- 35. How voting is carried out
- 35.1 Voting must be conducted and decided by:
- (a) a show of hands
 - (b) a vote in writing, or
 - (c) another method chosen by the chairperson that is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.
- 35.2 Before a vote is taken, the chairperson must state whether any proxy votes have been received and, if so, how the proxy votes will be cast.
- 35.3 On a show of hands, the chairperson's decision is conclusive evidence of the result of the vote.
- 35.4 The chairperson and the meeting minutes do not need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against on a show of hands.
- 36. When and how a vote in writing must be held
- 36.1 A vote in writing may be demanded on any resolution instead of or after a vote by a show of hands by:
- (a) at least five members present
 - (b) members present with at least 10% of the votes that may be passed on the resolution on the vote in writing (worked out as at the midnight before the vote in writing is demanded), or
 - (c) the chairperson.
- 36.2 A vote in writing must be taken when and how the chairperson directs, unless clause
- 36.3 applies.
- 36.3 A vote in writing must be held immediately if it is demanded under clause 36.1:
- (a) for the election of a chairperson under clause 27.2, or
 - (b) to decide whether to adjourn the meeting.
- 36.4 A demand for a vote in writing may be withdrawn.
- 37. Appointment of proxy
- 37.1 A member may appoint a proxy to attend and vote at a general meeting on their behalf.

- 37.3 A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member to:
- (a) speak at the meeting
 - (b) vote in a vote in writing (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment), and
 - (c) join in to demand a vote in writing under clause 36.1.
- 37.4 An appointment of proxy (proxy form) must be signed by the member appointing the proxy and must contain:
- (a) the member's name and address
 - (b) the company's name
 - (c) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy, and
 - (d) the meeting(s) at which the appointment may be used.
- 37.5 A proxy appointment may be standing (ongoing).
- 37.6 Proxy forms must be received by the company at the address stated in the notice under clause 22.5(d) or at the company's registered address at least 48 hours before a meeting.
- 37.7 A proxy does not have the authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting while the member is at the meeting.
- 37.8 Unless the company receives written notice before the start or resumption of a general meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy is valid even if, before the proxy votes, the appointing member:

- (a) dies
 - (b) is mentally incapacitated
 - (c) revokes the proxy's appointment, or
 - (d) revokes the authority of a representative or agent who appointed the proxy.
- 37.9 A proxy appointment may specify the way the proxy must vote on a particular resolution.
- 38. Voting by proxy
- 38.1 A proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands (but this does not prevent a member appointed as a proxy from voting as a member on a show of hands).
- 38.2 When a vote in writing is held, a proxy:
